Open House Sunday:
A Great Day;
Perhaps a New Tradition?

On September 19, our church held its first (maybe first annual?) Open House Sunday. We opened our doors even wider than we usually do and invited our community to come in and snoop around the place. And because many of you reached out to others to invite them in, some came. It was a memorable and inspiring morning!

Please see page 3 for Jeff's insightful column about this event.

Our Faith Family

Four New Life Groups Starting this Fall!

Not in one? We'd love to include you.

What are Life Groups? Life Groups are small groups of people here at Faith (6-10 ideally) that commit to meet regularly to grow together in their Christian faith. A typical Life Group meeting will include Bible study (based on the Sunday morning sermon), sharing, prayer, and often some good food. Put simply, it's a time for friends to seek together how to apply Jesus' teachings to their daily lives.

Who can belong? These groups are open to anybody in our church or community who has this desire to grow in faith and is willing to make a commitment to the group.

How do I sign up? Easy. Contact our church office, or speak with pastors Jeff Chapman or Jim Zazzera, or any of our life group leaders. They would love to tell you lots more and help get you connected! A list of their names and contact info is on the "spiritual growth/adults" page on our web site – www.faithpresby.org The new life groups are listed in bold!

Pastor's Column

You Smelled Like Bread Last Sunday!

Pastor Jeff Chapman

Several years ago we hired a realtor to help us sell our house. In an effort to attract buyers to our 1920's cottage-style home, she scheduled an open house. It's something realtors do all the time. The day of the open house, she reminded us that it was really important that when potential buyers came inside that the place smelled great. The best thing you can do, she told us, was bake some bread just before we open the doors. People love the smell of baking bread.

Now, whether or not the smell of baking bread puts people in the mood to spend their hard-earned money on a house, I don't know. I do know, however, that it does make them feel welcome. Who can resist the scent of sourdough rising in the oven?

Last Sunday our church held its first (maybe first annual?) Open House Sunday. We opened our doors even wider than we usually do and invited our community to come in and snoop around the place. And because many of you reached out to others to invite them in, some came. And when they did, I have to think that many of them enjoyed the "scent of the place."

I love watching our church display hospitality. It's one of the things you do best. I love watching Faith members make a walk across the patio at coffee hour, or across the aisle during the passing of the peace, to introduce themselves to somebody who is visiting for the first time. I love watching the warmth you all genuinely extend to the children of our new guests. I love when I see a hymnbook shared, or a cup of coffee poured, or a close parking spot left vacant. Mostly, I love to see the joy expressed in worship, a joy that I know is infectious to those seeking that same joy in their own lives.

In John, chapter 6, right after Jesus feeds over 5000 people with a few loaves of bread, he tells his disciples plainly, "I am the bread of life." (John 6:48) He wants them, and us, to know that his Father sent him down from heaven for people to "eat" so that they would not die and, instead, find abundant and eternal life. Jesus is the bread that a spiritually starved world desperately needs to survive.

I love that Jesus chose to call himself bread. I suppose some other food would work as well (I am the pasta of life?), but everybody needs bread. It is the basic staple of life. Plus, most everybody I know loves bread. Especially when it's baking!

I pray that as the people of Sacramento come into contact with the people of Faith, whether it's here as our guests on a Sunday morning or out in the community during the week, that the Spirit of Christ which dwells in us would be the bread of heaven for them. Especially when they come to worship with us, I pray that the scent of Christ among us would fill this place like the smell of freshly baking sourdough fills a home. So much so that people cannot help drawing more closely to find out what it is about this community that has made us people of such joy.

For all of you who took a chance and invited somebody to come join our Open House, I applaud you. Even if your invitation wasn't accepted, don't be so sure that a seed wasn't planted. As God leads, continue to extend that invitation. Continue to encourage. Continue to welcome. Continue to pray. Continue to love and serve. We live in a community of people whose souls are starving to death. And we, of all people, know where to find bread! I look forward to worshipping with you and, once again, making the place smell great this Sunday morning!

Grace & Peace -- Jeff

Hunger and Homelessness Task Force Meets

Faith's hunger and homelessness task force has recently formed and will be meeting the 4th Monday of the month to discern how God is leading Faith to serve our brothers and sisters in Sacramento. The group is reading "When Helping Hurts" and will discuss questions from the book. Additionally, discussions will center on how the congregation has served the community in the past, what agencies/organizations are already doing in Sacramento to address homelessness and hunger, and what gaps need to be filled. By early 2011 the task force will have specific recommendations to bring to the congregation. Questions? Contact DiAnne Brown at 395-6129.

Communications Campaign

On October 3rd, we will be launching our Communications campaign to ensure all that would like to receive our communications, i.e., PresbyNews Newsletter, Top 5@Faith and other communications, are signed up.

You will have the option to receive the PresbyNews via email, hard mail, or both. Keep your eye out for the neon green cards in the pews after October 3rd and leave your request in the offering plate to be processed.

Blood Drive

The next blood drive will be Sunday, October 24th from 8:30 - 12:30.

All donors will receive a coupon for $30 off dinner or brunch for two on the Hornblower cruise in Old Sacramento!

Donors can sign up for a specific appointment time, or just come that Sunday and take times that are open. We will be taking sign-ups on Sunday October 10th and 17th before, between and after services.

You can also contact Sally Evey at evcasual@yahoo.com, or 429-9510, to set up an appointment.

2010 Faith Fall Family Retreat

Another Faith Fall Retreat has come and gone, and what a retreat it was! Over 190 persons were registered making it our largest retreat ever. Our speaker Ben Patterson helped us understand how the Psalms can provide direction for prayer and challenged us with new ways of thinking about prayer. He even helped us practice what we had learned in small group settings.

In addition to learning more about our relationship to our God, retreat participants also had plenty of time to relax and get to know one another on a more personal basis. Many commented that this was one of the things they enjoyed most about the retreat. Of course, being in a setting as beautiful and pristine as Zephyr Point just added another plus to the weekend.

Many thanks go to Barbara and Jim Tracy who did the overall organization. In addition, our appreciation goes to Ruth Warner, Joyce Hathaway, and Jan Sperling, who handled the registration desk; Marianne Jenkins, who took charge of food and coffee; Mike and Rhonda Hankey, who provided a delicious ice cream social. Thank you to all the others who helped make this another Retreat to Remember! See you next year - mark your calendar for September 9- 11, 2011!

Thanks for Helping Make the Luau & Auction a Success!

Faith's Luau BBQ, Auction and Raffle was held on September 26. Over 250 guests donned their Hawaiian attire as they enjoyed a delicious Hawaiian meal. The guests enjoyed traditional dances performed by the Ohana Dance Group and ukulele music by the L&L Lakecrest Jammers. The entertaining emcee was our very own Pat Tatro. The children enjoyed face painting, hula hoop activities and art projects throughout the evening. One of the highlights of the evening was the opportunity for members of the audience to show off their Hukilau dancing skills.

Proceeds from the event will be contributed to Faith's Campership fund, which provides assistance to those in our congregation who need help with the costs of attending the children's camp at Westminster Woods, Faith Fall Family Retreat, Men's and Boy's Retreat and the Women's retreat. Thank you to everyone who attended the event, donated items for the auction and raffle, prepared desserts, and gave your time in planning and preparing for the event. Many hands contributed to the success of the Luau and Auction!

Stewardship Ministry

Faith's Fall Stewardship Campaign Generosity: Moving Towards Life that is Truly Life!

Visit our new blog at faithpresby.org/blog/

I don't know about you, but last Sunday's open house left me inspired about Faith Presbyterian Church. The music, the scripture and Jeff's message were all fantastic. It was wonderful as well to see a number of new people attending. (Maybe it was my imagination, but I even think I heard cymbals crashing).

It is with the optimism that we are a growing, committed community that Faith's Stewardship Ministry announces the launch of our fall stewardship campaign.

Last year, we had such positive feedback from incorporating a book into our program, The Treasure Principle, that we decided to do it again. This year, we have selected Generosity by Gordon MacDonald. The book will be distributed to Faith members during the first 2 services in October (3rd and 10th).

Please check for more blog posts and Top 5 at Faith updates as our stewardship program draws nearer. For now, please note the following important dates:

September 26th: Official launch of the Stewardship campaign.

October 3rd & 10th: Distribute book "Generosity" by Gordon MacDonald to Faith members.

October 10th: Encourage Faith members to begin reading Generosity as well as watch the amazing stories of Generosity at www.generositybook.com.

October 27th: Letter to Faith members with pledge card.

October 31st: Jeff to preach sermon related to stewardship and Finance Ministry to conduct a forum on Faith's budget.

November 7th: Commitment Sunday

Finally, it is never too early to prayerfully consider what stewardship means to you personally. God's abundance to us is infinite and each of us must look within, with His guidance, as to how to honor His endless generosity.

Peace,

Stewardship Ministry

Have Some Compassion!

For the past three years Faith church has set aside a weekend in the spring to go out into the community and the world and serve those in need. Projects are scheduled Saturday morning and afternoon and Sunday morning worship services are cancelled so that everyone in the congregation has the opportunity to work on a project, either at the church or out in the community. Then we gather together Sunday afternoon for a meal and worship service. Compassion Weekend is a vital part of Faith's mission ministry!

Now it's time to start planning for next year's Compassion Weekend – Saturday April 30 and Sunday May 1. After two years of leadership DiAnne Brown is stepping down as Compassion Weekend chair and we're looking for someone to step in and lead. This might be a great opportunity for a Life Group or one or two friends to co-lead. DiAnne will be available to support the new leadership team and help in organizing the event. As a Compassion Weekend chair, you'll have the opportunity to organize the weekend your way or follow a template from previous years. Or better yet, see where God leads you!

Questions? Contact DiAnne Brown at 395-6129. For more information about Compassion Weekend, go to www.faithpresby.org and follow the Compassion Weekend link.

Children and Family Ministries

Interim Leadership Plans for Our Children's Ministry

This month our Session had an extended discussion about how to continue to provide leadership for our Children's Ministry until the time when we can hire a replacement to replace Melinda Lewis. Elder Christine Mendoza and the Children's Ministry Team, with support from Pastor Patrick Vaughn, will be working hard to make sure our programs run smoothly until that time. Thanks to all of you who are so committed to caring for our kids!

In the meantime, a Children's Director Search Committee was formed and has already begun its work. The committee includes Glenda Arellano (chair), Mark Hubler, Lee Bush, Vicki Chastain and Patrick Vaughn (staff advisor). They will keep us all posted on their progress. Please pray that God would lead us to the right person to lead the next season of this vital ministry.

Family Ministry @ Faith Presbyterian Church

Christian Parenthood is the call to love your children like God loves you! This takes walking with and discipling our children in Christ day in and day out, living in the gospel story with them day in and day out, and teaching them how to trust and obey the Lord, day in and day out. So, here at Faith we are committed to walking along side one another, equipping one another, supporting one another and enjoying one another as we dare to live into this God given calling.

Family Nights

We all need friends and we all need help raising our children in faith in Jesus. That is what Faith Family Nights are all about. Come reconnect and make new connections with other families and the Lord! Faith Family Nights are for the whole family (with children 0 – 18.) You are invited to gather on the 4th Sunday of the month (for the most part unless there is a special event or holiday (* see calendar bellow) from 4:00-6:15pm in Link Hall.

Each night we will start with an all-family game time, followed by break-out sessions (for all ages!) and finished with dinner together. Dinner is paid for by your donations at the door. You can contribute whatever you can afford.

For parents we will have large group equipping session, followed by small group discussions, closed with prayer for each other's families.

For children and youth there is child care for children under the age of 3, fellowship and craft time for children 4 years old - 5th grade and a Youth Café for Junior and Senior High (youth relevant videos and fellowship over coffee, tea and hot cocoa with our Youth Intern).

Opportunities to Get Involved

Getting Involved at Faith is Easier than Ever!

Are you new to the church or a long-time member looking for a way to get involved, serve God, and meet some new friends? There is so much going on at Faith but how do you find out who is in charge of what?

Look no further than the "Pathways to Service", a booklet listing all ministries in the church with a brief description, contact person, and a phone number--sort of our own in-house Yellow Pages! The 2010 booklet was introduced in worship on September 26, available to take home with you that day. You can still pick one up!

Along with the booklet you will receive a sheet which provides a listing of each ministry. We invite you to mark which ministries you are interested in. Turn these forms into the office or the Welcome Center in the Narthex by October 17 and you will be contacted an Elder, Deacon, ministry head, or staff member regarding your area(s) of interest.

Additional copies of the Pathways to Service booklet will be available in the Welcome center and the church office. The booklet will also be on the church's website (faithpresby.org)-click on our community and then get involved. The interest sheet will also be in the website so you can print it, if you wish. Our hope is that you will peruse the booklet and find a ministry that you love!

How do I Start a New Ministry?

Do you have an idea for a new ministry you want to begin? The way you go about that is to contact the Elder of the area of your new ministry (i.e. Mission, Children's or it may be the Deacons). They will ask you to come to their team meeting and discuss your idea for a new ministry with the team. It may be a ministry that the team is able to approve (such as Sponsoring World Vision children by Mission or Prayer Blankets by the Deacons). You could then start the ministry; the team could also give you some guidance about starting the ministry. If it was a ministry such as Family Promise or Compassion Weekend (ministries that involve many in our church community and use of the facilities of the church, you would with the Elder take it to Session and it would require Session approval.

GOT AN ITCH?

No--not a physical one! It's that thought, idea, or whatever that keeps popping up in your mind that tells you to do it, or at least continue to flesh it out in your everyday thoughts. It ties in (at least in your mind) with how you want to serve Christ and be a more giving disciple. Your Problem Is---What do I do about it? Where do I start?

The answer: Bring it to the attention of the Lay Ministry Team. Let them know, either by speaking or writing what you have in mind. It's that easy. They would love to hear about that "itch" that has been bothering you and to assist you in any way they can. If a person brought an idea to the Lay Ministry Team, it would eventually need to go thru the process described in the first article, and our team is aware of that.

What Are Those Elders Up to Now?

Highlights from Our September Session Meeting

The following are some of the decisions which were made this month at Session (elder board) and some of the areas of ministry which were celebrated. We hope you share in the enthusiasm of Session in all that God is doing in our midst. As a reminder, Session meetings are held the 2nd Monday of each month at 7:00 here at church. Unless otherwise determined, they are open meetings and church members are always encouraged to come listen in. We'll even share our snacks!

Praying for God's protection over Faith – Session spent an extended time this month praying for God to strengthen and protect this community and help it become what God intends it to become. As our guide in prayer, we used Ephesians 6:10-20. This is a guide that we all could regularly use to pray for one another.

Interim plans for our Children's Ministry – Session had an extended discussion about how to continue to provide leadership for our Children's Ministry until the time when we can hire a replacement to replace Melinda Lewis. Elder Christine Mendoza and the Children's Ministry Team, with support from Pastor Patrick Vaughn, will be working hard to make sure our programs run smoothly until that time. A Children's Director Search Committee was formed and has already begun its work. The committee includes Glenda Arellano (chair), Mark Hubler, Lee Bush, Vicki Chastain and Patrick Vaughn (staff advisor). They will keep us all posted on their progress. Please pray that God would lead us to the right person to lead the next season of this vital ministry.

Putting up a screen in the sanctuary – Session reviews proposals brought by the Acoustics Improvements Committee in regards to installing a new audio visual system in our sanctuary which would allow us to use video imagery in worship with better ease and professionalism. After an extended discussion, the Session asked the Acoustics Committee to consider a wider range of options in an effort to make sure that we disrupt the symmetry and aesthetics in the sanctuary as little as possible.

Memorial monies support training! – Session voted enthusiastically to use memorial monies to continue to offer partial financial support to Rick Stern as he pursues a masters degree in Theology. They also voted to support sending Jenny May, a member of our Worship Band, to a local conference for singers and songwriters. Session will be looking at re-establishing a fund (Stoking the Fires Fund) that helps Faith members receive this sort of training in ministry.

Please note: If you ever have any questions for any of our elders, a complete list of names, areas of ministry, contact info, and even photos can be found on our web page at http://www.faithpresby.org/modules/fp_faith/?tac=3
